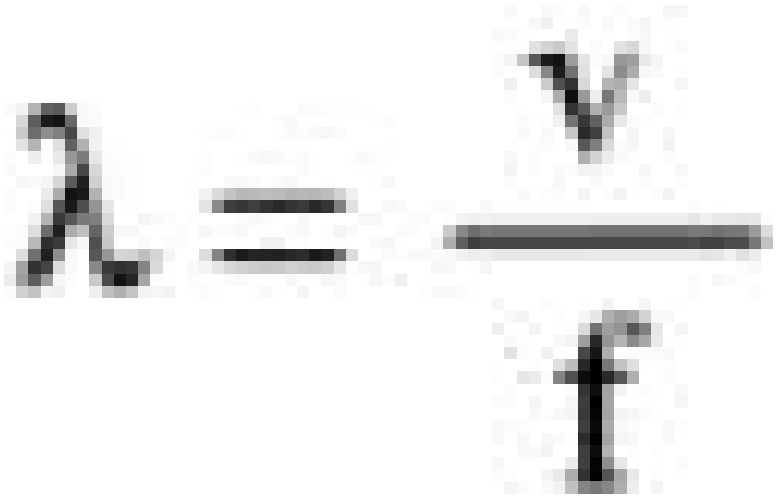
Based on our believes

Frequency Dark Relations

S.Anshuman



We are often taught in our school that in the equation

$$\lambda f = v$$

[Where λ is wavelength.f is frequency and v is velocity]

f is proportional to v. i.e frequency is directly proportional to velocity and that is the relation between them.

But actually this is not correct.

Because in this equation λ is proportional to v and f is constant in the given media.